

About Talbert House

- Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Addictions, Community Care, Community Corrections, Housing, and Mental Health.
- Talbert House was founded to help homeless men reenter the community. In August 1965, with a budget of $30,000 from private donations, the first halfway house program opened.
- Talbert House's primary service area is Brown, Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton, and Warren counties in Southwest Ohio.
- Services are offered to a broad-based population with the agency's mission in mind: empowering children, adults, and families to live healthy, safe, and productive lives.
- Last year, Talbert House served over 24,200 clients face-to-face with an additional 80,200 in prevention and hotline services.
- Talbert House creates innovative, evidenced-based programs that are proven to solve tough social problems that impact all members of the community.
