About Talbert House

- Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Addictions, Community Care, Community Corrections, Housing and Mental Health.
- Talbert House was founded to help homeless men reenter the community. In August 1965, with a budget of $30,000 from private donations, the first halfway house program opened.
- Talbert House's primary service area is Brown, Butler, Clermont, Clinton, Hamilton and Warren counties in Southwest Ohio.
- Services are offered to a broad-based population with the agency's mission in mind: empowering children, adults, and families to live healthy, safe and productive lives.
- Last year, Talbert House served over 21,000 clients face-to-face with an additional 96,00 in prevention and hotline services.
- Talbert House creates innovative, evidenced-based programs that are proven to solve tough social problems that impact all members of the community.

Bang Bang in Paradise (TO-GO)

Friday, July 30 - Sunday, August 1

Pickup: 11:00 AM - 7:30 PM

Bonefish Grill - Hyde Park

In partnership with Bonefish Grill, we are bringing back the Paradise Party Packs. Enjoy a three course meal from Bonefish Grill, including Bang Bang Shrimp to-go.

Proceeds from this event benefit Talbert House's mission of empowering children, adults and families to live healthy, safe and productive lives.

Last year, 279 business professionals, young professionals and friends of Talbert House enjoyed Paradise Party Packs.
