Talbert House Will Honor Three at Annual Luncheon
Bob Mecum, Judge John West, and PsychPros named awardees

CINCINNATI— On Friday, September 30, Talbert House will celebrate its achievements of the past year and recognize honorees Bob Mecum, The Honorable John West, and PsychPros for their impact on Talbert House's mission and the community at its annual luncheon held at the Hyatt Regency Downtown.

Bob Mecum, a Pierce Township resident and President and CEO of Lighthouse Youth Services, will be awarded the Ernest Talbert Award. The Honorable John West, a resident of Paddock Hills and retired judge for the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, will receive the Agnes Seasongood Award. The Community Service Award will go to PsychPros, a behavioral healthcare staffing and executive search firm located in Mt. Auburn.

Individual or corporate reservations for the 2016 Talbert House Annual Luncheon can be made online by visiting www.talberthouse.org. For available sponsorship opportunities contact Jenna Toon at jenna.toon@talberthouse.org or 513-751-7747 ext. 1095.
