Talbert House Names New Chief Financial Officer
Carla Brooks oversees agency finances

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is pleased to announce the new hire of Carla Brooks as its Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, overseeing operations of the agency's finance department.

Carla joins the team with extensive finance leadership over three decades, including the past 17 years as CFO of several large healthcare organizations including St. Andrews, Prestige Healthcare, Deaconess Associations, and Drake Center. Additionally, Carla has an impressive 13 year experience with PremierCare Consulting and Deloitte, working exclusively with healthcare organizations on issues like revenue cycle, cost reporting, information systems, and audit. She is a Certified Public Accountant and has a bachelor's degree from the University of Kentucky and master's in Health Administration from Xavier University. Carla also served as President of the Southwestern Ohio HFMA. Carla is the mother to two sons. When away from the office, she enjoys boating, reading, and spending time with her grandson.
