

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
February 12, 2015

Talbert House honors Michael Allen as Employee of the Year
Donald, Fink, Rulon, and Woodson recognized as Outstanding Employees

CINCINNATI— Talbert House kicked off its 50th anniversary this month with its annual employee appreciation and recognition dinner held on February 5, 2015. Michael Allen of Westwood was honored as the 2014 Employee of the Year.

Allen is a new supervisor for adult behavioral health services in Walnut Hills and was chosen among 850 employees for his exceptional customer service and positive outcomes in working with severely mentally disabled adults. His exemplary case management skills have resulted in increased wellness, improved independent living, and overall stability through client-focused quality care.

“Allen exemplifies a daily commitment to improving the lives of clients we serve and is always willing to go above and beyond to ensure clients receive the care they need,” said Neil Tilow, President and CEO. “He is an excellent role model for others and is passionate about what he does. The agency is very lucky to have him.”

Also recognized as Outstanding Employees of 2014 were Marchelle Donald of Northside, Ellen Fink of Middletown, Alex Rulon of Loveland, and James Woodson of Colerain Township.

###

Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Adult Behavioral Health, Community Care, Court and Corrections, Housing, and Youth Behavioral Health. Children, adults and families benefit from these proven services. Each year, Talbert House serves almost 36,000 clients face to face and an additional 34,000 are reached through prevention services throughout Greater Cincinnati. The Talbert House mission has two basic purposes: to improve social behavior and enhance personal recovery and growth.