Families Celebrate Father's Day at Sawyer Point
Talbert House celebration promotes active, committed fathers

CINCINNATI—Greater Cincinnati families celebrated Father's Day at Sawyer Point at Talbert House's Sixth Annual Fatherhood Community Celebration. About 4,000 individuals attended the free event featuring games and entertainment, arts and crafts, food and beverages, sports activities, and live music throughout the day.

Talbert House thanks the many volunteers and generous sponsors, including Performance Lexus and Midland Atlantic Properties, who made this event possible and a great success. Food and beverages were supplied by Borden Dairy, Cincinnati Vending, Ellenbee Leggett, Gold Star Chili, Home City Ice, Kona Ice, Kroger, LaRosa's Pizza, Mailender, Sunny Delight, and United Dairy Farmers. The Home Depot provided crafts for children.

Music was performed by Backdoor, Greedy Pritchard, and Deuces Musik. Former Cincinnati Reds players Todd Benzinger and Tom Browning signed autographs, and special guest appearances were made by Big Boy, UC Bearcat, and the BenGals, along with superheroes and princesses.

Talbert House is one of the leading advocates for promoting fatherhood. Talbert House's Fatherhood Project assists men in their efforts to be responsible, committed and nurturing fathers and is funded in part by the United Way of Greater Cincinnati. The event was co-chaired by John Silverman, Andrew Limke, and Taylor Uehlin and sponsored in part by the Ohio Commission on Fatherhood.
