Talbert House Announces New Ambassador Board Chair
Laufman leads agency's young professionals board

CINCINNATI— Paul Laufman of Laufman & Napolitano, LLC has been inducted as chair of the Talbert House Ambassador Board, the agency's young professionals network, succeeding Stacy Cole. Paul will lead for a one-year term and serve on the Talbert House Board of Trustees.

Paul is a criminal defense attorney who has defended the rights of Ohioans for nearly 15 years. He received his undergraduate degree from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and Juris Doctor from the University of Cincinnati. His current and past involvement includes the Greater Cincinnati Criminal Defense Lawyers Association Board of Directors, the Cincinnati Bar Associations' Civil Rights Committee, and the Ohio and National Associations of Criminal Defense Attorneys. Paul lives in Anderson Township with his wife, Kira and son, Luke.

Talbert House Ambassadors align the talents and energy of engaged young professionals in the Greater Cincinnati area to support Talbert House through volunteering, fundraising, and advocacy in an atmosphere that promotes social connections and professional networking.
