Talbert House welcomes Alisa Berry

New director oversees agency's housing services

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is pleased to welcome Alisa Berry to its team as the Director of Housing, overseeing residential special needs, transitional, and permanent supportive housing.

Alisa, a resident of Golf Manor, has served in a variety of leadership positions working to implement improvements to the homeless service system, facilitating strategic planning efforts to improve the system of care to families, and leading a multifunctional team of fourteen staff persons conducting case planning and assessment. She most recently comes from Catholic Charities Southwestern Ohio as the Refugee Resettlement Director.

Alisa is a graduate of Norfolk State University and Northern Kentucky University and a proud mother to her four year old son.

Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Adult Behavioral Health, Community Care, Court and Corrections, Housing, and Youth Behavioral Health. Children, adults and families benefit from these proven services. Each year, Talbert House serves almost 36,000 clients face to face and an additional 34,000 are reached through prevention services throughout Greater Cincinnati. The Talbert House mission has two basic purposes: to improve social behavior and enhance personal recovery and growth.
