Talbert House welcomes Heidi Monroe
New director oversees community behavioral health

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is pleased to welcome Heidi Monroe to its team as the director of Adult and Youth Behavioral Health services. She will oversee services delivered at the College Hill and Western Hills locations.

Heidi was previously the Mental Health Administrator at Corizon Health Services in Nashville, Tennessee and has ten years of experience as a probation officer at Hancock County Courts. She is a Ball State University and American Public University alumnus and is pursuing a MBA in Healthcare Administration at Western Governor's University. Heidi and her husband, Adam, are natives of Central Indiana.

Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Adult Behavioral Health, Community Care, Court and Corrections, Housing, and Youth Behavioral Health. Children, adults and families benefit from these proven services. Each year, Talbert House serves almost 36,000 clients face to face and an additional 34,000 are reached through prevention services throughout Greater Cincinnati. The Talbert House mission has two basic purposes: to improve social behavior and enhance personal recovery and growth.
