Calling All Superheroes: Let's Make Camp Possible!
Fundraiser in November will benefit Talbert House youth

CINCINNATI— You don't want to miss Make Camp Possible on Friday, November 3 from 6:30 to 9:30 p.m. at The Phoenix in downtown Cincinnati. Enjoy superhero festivities, music, and samples of fine cuisine and confections from local restaurants. Formerly known as Step Up to the Plate, this event benefits Talbert House's Camp Possible, a therapeutic-based summer program for children ages 6-12 who struggle with behavioral health issues.

Make Camp Possible is co-chaired by Peter Hiltz and Kim Kline. Restaurants offering dinner by the bite include: 20 Brix, Café Mediterranean, Forno Osteria + Bar, House Café & Catering, Hungree Wizard Gourmet Cupcakes, Midwest Culinary institute at Cincinnati State, Nothing Bundt Cakes, Oriental Wok, The Phoenix, Wurst Bar, and more. Top sponsors include Fifth Third Bank, Harold C. Schott Foundation, Mercy Health, Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing, Mrs. Robert D. Stern, and the Williams Foundation.

Purchase tickets online in advance at www.talberthouse.org; 100% of the proceeds benefit Camp Possible thanks to a generous donation by the Harold C. Schott Foundation. Discounts are available for young professionals. For sponsorship or restaurant opportunities, contact Jenna Toon, Events Coordinator at (513) 751-7747.
