Talbert House Fights Overdoses with Neighborhood Trainings
Corryville, CUF, Mt. Auburn session held Monday, May 15

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is hosting several community-based training sessions to combat the heroin epidemic and frequent overdoses occurring in Cincinnati's neighborhood communities. The next session will be held at Crossroads Uptown located at 42 Calhoun Street on Monday, May 15, 2017 from 6:00 to 7:30 PM.

The training provides guidance related to opioid overdose response and instruction on how to administer the lifesaving drug naloxone, also known by the brand name Narcan®. The non-narcotic medication will be furnished to attendees during each session. All community members of Corryville, Clifton Heights, University Heights, Fairview, Mt. Auburn, and surrounding neighborhoods are encouraged to attend.

Registration is free and required. Reserve your spot by following the link at www.talberthouse.org. Later sessions include Hartwell and Carthage. Additional neighborhood sessions will continue to be added.
