DAV Supports Homeless Men and Veterans
Parkway Center receives $35,500 donation

CINCINNATI— Disabled American Veterans (DAV) provided a donation of $35,500 to support Parkway Center operations, specifically related to food costs. Parkway Center is a homeless and transitional housing center for adult men and veterans in Hamilton County, operated by Talbert House.

“We at Parkway Center understand the importance of a holistic approach to serving veterans in Greater Cincinnati,” said Jimmy Wilson, Vice President of Housing. “By providing balanced meals we are assisting clients in developing healthy eating habits and helping to maintain their overall health.”

Parkway Center, located in the CUF neighborhood, serves approximately 240 men each year.
