Hersh Foundation Supports Local Veterans and Homeless
Parkway Apartments receives $150,000 grant

CINCINNATI— Talbert House was awarded a $150,000 grant by Beverly W. Hersh Charitable Trust to support Parkway Apartments, permanent supportive housing prioritized for veterans in Hamilton County. The program located in the Clifton Heights, University Heights, and Fairview (CUF) neighborhood provides homeless men and women with treatment services and a safe, drug-free living environment.

“Thanks to the help of generous foundations like the Beverly W. Hersh Charitable Trust,” says President and CEO Neil Tilow, “Talbert House continues to reintegrate chronically homeless people struggling with mental illness and/or addiction into the community by addressing their basic need for housing and providing ongoing support.”
