Make Camp Possible raises $125K for kids
Hiltz and Kline co-chair Talbert House fundraiser

CINCINNATI— On November 3, over 200 superheroes raised more than $125,000 to send children to Talbert House's Camp Possible next summer. Make Camp Possible, presented by the Harold C. Schott Foundation, is an annual fundraiser held at The Phoenix and supports the therapeutic-based summer program for children ages 6-12 who struggle with behavioral health issues.

Guests enjoyed the superhero theme with exciting raffles and silent auction items donated by local companies and artists, including superhero artwork by Andrew Van Sickle. Offering samples of hors d'oeuvres and confections were Busken Bakery, The Butcher and Barrel, Café Mediterranean, House Café and Catering, Hungree Wizard Gourmet Cupcakes, Jean Robert's Table, Nothing Bundt Cakes, Oriental Wok, The Phoenix, The Summit at Cincinnati State College/MCI, and The Weekly Juicery.

Make Camp Possible was co-chaired by Peter Hiltz and Kim Kline. 100% of the event's proceeds benefit Camp Possible thanks to a generous donation by the Harold C. Schott Foundation. Fifth Third Bank, Mercy Health, Ohio Capital Corporation for Housing, Mrs. Robert D. Stern, and The Williams Foundation were among the event's top sponsors.
