Talbert House Fights Overdoses with Neighborhood Trainings
Mt. Airy session held Thursday, May 4

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is hosting several community-based training sessions to combat the heroin epidemic and frequent overdoses occurring in Cincinnati's neighborhood communities. The next session will be held at St. Therese Little Flower Parish located at 5560 Kirby Avenue on Thursday, May 4, 2017 from 6:00 to 7:30 PM.

The training provides guidance related to opioid overdose response and instruction on how to administer the lifesaving drug naloxone, also known by the brand name Narcan®. The non-narcotic medication will be furnished to attendees during each session. All community members of Mt. Airy and surrounding neighborhoods are encouraged to attend.

Registration is free and required. Reserve your spot by following the link at www.talberthouse.org. Later sessions include: Camp Washington & Northside; Corryville, CUF, & Mt. Auburn; and Hartwell & Carthage. Additional neighborhood sessions will continue to be added.
