Talbert House Fights Overdoses with Neighborhood Trainings
Hyde Park, Madisonville, Oakley session held Monday, Feb. 27

CINCINNATI—Talbert House is hosting several community-based training sessions to combat the heroin epidemic and frequent overdoses occurring in Cincinnati's neighborhood communities. The next session will be held at the Oakley Recreation Center located at 3882 Paxton Avenue on Monday, February 27, 2017 from 6:00 to 7:30 PM.

The trainings provide guidance related to opioid overdose response and instruction on how to administer the lifesaving drug naloxone, also known by the brand name Narcan[®]. The non-narcotic medication will be furnished to attendees during each session. All community members of Hyde Park, Madisonville, Oakley, and surrounding neighborhoods are encouraged to attend. Registration is required; please reserve your spot via the corresponding link at Talberthouse.org/news-and-events.

Upcoming training sessions have been scheduled for Over-the-Rhine/West End and Lower Price Hill. Additional sessions will be added in the coming weeks.
