Christy Adams Named Director of Medical Administration for Talbert House

CINCINNATI— Talbert House welcomes Christy Adams as the new Director of Medical Administration, overseeing health care services that are provided to clients and the community, including the Deaconess Health Check offices in Walnut Hills and Western Hills.

Christy has spent over nine years working as an Independent Healthcare Operations Consultant. She has extensive experience in facility planning and implementation as well as recruiting and training qualified staff. Christy has also served as the Manager of Clinical Operations for the University of Cincinnati Physicians, and as the Emergency Services Manager at Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center.

Christy currently lives in Ross Township, has six children, and coaches youth soccer.
