

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
January 31, 2018

Gregory Rogers joins Talbert House Board

CINCINNATI— Talbert House welcomes Gregory Rogers as the 42nd member of its Board of Trustees. He will represent the agency's newest affiliate, Health Care Access Now, on which he serves as a member of the Board of Directors.

Rogers is chair of Labor Relations and Union Avoidance practice at Taft Stettinius and Hollister. He has nearly 30 years of experience representing private and public employers in all aspects of labor and employment law. Rogers is a graduate of the Emory University School of Law in Atlanta and serves as chair of the Hyde Park Community United Methodist Church's Servant Leadership Board. He and his wife, Kathy, reside in Western Hills.

Health Care Access Now joined the Talbert House Affiliation in January 2018 and is a primary care system that offers integrated and community-centered services for the uninsured and other vulnerable patient populations who do not have consistent and affordable access to health care.

###

Talbert House is a community-wide nonprofit that operates within five service lines: Adult Behavioral Health, Community Care, Court and Corrections, Housing, and Youth Behavioral Health. Children, adults and families benefit from these proven services. Last year, Talbert House served over 21,700 clients face to face and an additional 53,000 through hotline and prevention services throughout Southwest Ohio. Talbert House's mission is to improve social behavior and enhance personal recovery and growth.