Jeremy Ratcliff Leads Talbert House Court Treatment

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is excited to welcome Jeremy Ratcliff to its team as the Director of Court Treatment under the Addictions service line, overseeing substance use disorder treatment for men and women involved with the justice system. These services include assessment, education, counseling, and case management along with other specialty services.

Jeremy comes to the Agency after 17 years with the Highland County Probation Department providing misdemeanor jail diversion and specialized felony supervision, with 15 of those years spent as Director. Having earned his Bachelor's degree from Wilmington College in Criminal Justice and Political Studies, he has also been heavily involved with community corrections across the area throughout his career. He has served on the board for the Ohio Justice Alliance for Community Corrections and as a member of the Ohio Chief Probation Officers Association and Highland County Criminal Justice Advisory Committee. Jeremy currently lives in the Hillsboro area with his wife Tara, and has three children and two grandchildren.
