Kamaria Tyehimba joins Talbert House as Director of Addictions Services

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is excited to have Kamaria Tyehimba join the Agency as the Director of Addictions Services. Kamaria will oversee services focused on opiates relating to medicated assisted treatment, assessment, day reporting, counseling, and the new Engagement Center, all under the Addictions service line.

Kamaria comes with over 35 years of experience in mental health and addictions services working with adolescents and adults. She holds a Ph.D. in social psychology, and a Master's degree in social work, and was a recipient of the 2016 Presidential Lifetime Achievement Award. The mission and clients of Talbert House will undoubtedly benefit from her extensive knowledge and experience.

Kamaria is also the mother of five boys, enjoys music, dancing, and cheering on the Bengals in her free time.
