Talbert House's Scott Elsbrock selected as Exemplary Case Manager

CINCINNATI— The National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) of Southwest Ohio recently recognized Scott Elsbrock as Exemplary Case Manager of the Year at their 2018 Evening of Hope. Scott has been with Talbert House since 2012.

In Scott's award nomination it is his gentle, reassuring, and empathetic nature that is highlighted, "Whether it involves finding clients safe and secure housing, planning for a successful discharge from incarceration, or hospitalization, or even being persistent in making contact with clients when they are unreachable, Scott sets the bar," said Carrie Kunzelman, Supervisor at Western Hills.

Congratulations to Scott on being named NAMI of Southwest Ohio's 2018 Exemplary Case Manager!
