Talbert House announces three honorees for Annual Luncheon in September

Latessa, McFarlin, Robinson named awardees

CINCINNATI— On Friday, September 28, Talbert House will hold its Annual Luncheon to celebrate the achievements of the last year and to honor those who have made an impact on the community and the agency's mission.

Receiving the Ernest Talbert award this year will be Ed Latessa, Professor and Director of the School of Criminal Justice at the University of Cincinnati. Cedric Robinson, District Chief of Emergency Medical Services with the Cincinnati Fire Department, will be awarded the Agnes Seasongood Award. The Community Service Award will go to Gwen McFarlin, a Springfield Township Trustee.

Individual or corporate reservations for the 2018 Talbert House Annual Luncheon can be made online by visiting www.talberthouse.org. Contact Jenna Toon at jenna.toon@talberthouse.org or (513) 751-7747 ext. 1095, for more information.
