Talbert House names Alisa Berry as Director of Regional Community Corrections

CINCINNATI— Talbert House is pleased to welcome Alisa Berry back to the Agency as the head of Regional Community Corrections. She previously served as the Director of Housing for Talbert House in 2014. Alisa will oversee three Talbert House programs; Turtle Creek Center, Serenity Hall, and the Community Correctional Center.

With a degree in Public Administration and a Non-Profit Management certificate from Northern Kentucky University, Alisa has more than 20 years of experience working in social services. She spent eight years managing the Central Intake for homeless families in Norfolk, Virginia before returning to Cincinnati to be close to family. Alisa enjoys spending her free time with her family, especially her son who starts third grade this year.
