New CEO Josh Arnold Leads Talbert House

Josh Arnold, with an impressive tenure at the agency, now takes the reins as Talbert House's new Chief Executive Officer (CEO), following Neil Tilow's decision to step down after an outstanding 49 years of service.

Arnold has served the agency for 25 years, assuming greater responsibility and impact with each role. He started as a case manager in 1998 and has ascended to leadership positions throughout his tenure. After serving as Talbert House's Director of Adolescent Services, he transitioned into Vice President roles for Youth Behavioral Health, Court and Corrections and Addiction Services. In 2022, he was promoted to Chief Operating Officer.

The Board of Trustees gave the entire team a vote of confidence by appointing Josh as the new CEO in July.

Welcome new COO, Jodi Harding

Talbert House proudly announces Jodi Harding as the new Chief Operating Officer.

With 26 years of experience in behavioral health and social services, Jodi's career started at Hamilton County Department of Job and Family Services. She joined Talbert House as a Clinical Service Provider and later progressed to a Clinical Supervisor in School Based Services.

Jodi's leadership grew as she assumed roles such as Clinical Director and Vice President at Lighthouse, ultimately becoming COO in 2018.

She earned a Bachelor's Degree in Social Work from Ohio State University and a Master's Degree in Clinical Counseling from Xavier University.

Talbert House Annual Luncheon Honorees

On Monday, September 18, Talbert House hosted the 58th Annual Luncheon at the Hard Rock Casino to celebrate the past year's achievements and honor those who have made an impact on our community and the Agency's mission. Talbert House proudly honored Colleen Chamberlain, Mark Clement/TriHealth, and Rev. Dr. Donald E. Jones Sr. as this year's honorees.

Colleen Chamberlain, Executive Director of the Mental Health Recovery Board Serving Warren and Clinton Counties, received the Agnes Seasongood Award. By working together with stakeholders, community organizations, and providers like Talbert House, Colleen contributed to the growth of behavioral health services and programs to those who need it most.

Mark Clement, President & CEO of TriHealth, accepted the Ernest Talbert Award on behalf of TriHealth. Under Mark's leadership, TriHealth works with physicians, hospitals, and communities to "get health care right", with a focus on integrated health care.

Rev. Dr. Donald E. Jones Sr., Senior Pastor at the Greater New Hope Missionary Baptist Church was honored with the Community Service Award. Dr. Jones demonstrates valuable leadership through his exceptional involvement throughout multiple community organizations including his leadership with the African American Engagement Workgroup (AAEW).

Talbert House thanks Award Sponsors Clark Schaefer Hackett, Model Group and Paycom, Mission Moment Sponsor Aon and many others for their generous contributions.

Summer Smash Raises Over $50,000 for Talbert House

A new event, Summer Smash raised over $50,000 to benefit Talbert House programs and services.

On August 27, over 160 guests gathered to enjoy the final days of summer at Aces Pickleball + Kitchen for Summer Smash, an event featuring pickleball, dinner, dessert by That's So Sweet!, raffles, and more. The event highlighted the importance of supporting an organization with a mission that positively impacts the community.

This event was made possible thanks to Kitchen Sponsor Fifth Third Bank, Smash Sponsors Mercy Health, Mullaney's, a Guardian Pharmacy, USI Insurance Services and many others.

Celebration Raises $342,000 to Support Fatherhood Project

On June 8, Talbert House and 340 guests celebrated dedicated dads and strong families. Generously presented by the Hatton Foundation, the event raised over $342,000 to support Talbert House's Fatherhood Project, a program that supports responsible, committed and nurturing dads.

Guests had an opportunity to network and enjoy historic Memorial Hall. The highlight of the evening included a keynote address from Cincinnati Bengals Head Coach, Zac Taylor with a special introduction by his father Sherwood Taylor. Coach Taylor and Fatherhood Project Graduate Larry Thomas were honored as Fathers of the Year. The videos can be viewed here: <https://www.youtube.com/talberthouse1>.
